

Kurling

We went to Holmes Chapel High School to play Kurling which is a game for disabled or non-disabled people. In our team there was Theo, Jack, Zara and me, Ben. In each team one person got a medal and the person who got the medal was me, Ben.

At the results Mr Capewell clapped for the adults who brought the girls and boys. Then Mr Capewell clapped for the girls and boys who played Kurling. Then the awards were given out to the players and the school. First I got the medal for Chelford then it was Lower Peover, Holmes Chapel Primary and Brereton. The winners, who got the trophy, were Goostrey Primary School who had two disabled players on their team.
